Announces its 47th Season, 2011–2012

“How to Succeed in Business Without Really Trying” Nov./Dec. 2011

Music & Lyrics by Frank Loesser, Book by Abe Burrows

This Pulitzer Prize-winning musical comedy returns to this theater and is an irreverent satire about Corporate America. Based on the book by Shepherd Mead, J. Pierpont Finch owes his meteoric rise from a window cleaner to Chairman of the Board of the World Wide Wicket Company, not by hard work, but by his ability to make others work hard for him. This musical opened on Broadway in 1981, receiving a Tony Award for Best Musical, starring Robert Morse and Rudy Vallee, who also repeated their roles in the movie. A new production of this delightful musical opened on Broadway in 1996 and the National Tour appeared in San Francisco. Memorable songs include “Coffee Break”, “The Company Way”, “A Secretary Is Not a Toy”, “I Believe In You”, and “Brotherhood Of Man”..

“The Drowsy Chaperone” Mar/Apr. 2012

Music & Lyrics by Lisa Lambert and Greg Morrison,
Book by Bob Martin and Don McKellar

Coming to this theatre in its Saratoga premiere is this truly modern, original musical within a comedy, which pays tribute to the Jazz-age shows of the 1920’s. This musical is based on the tale of a pampered Broadway starlet who wants to give up show business to get married, her producer who sets out to sabotage the nuptials, her chaperone, the debonair groom, the dizzy chorine, the Latin lover and a couple of gangsters. “The Drowsy Chaperone” opened in Toronto, Canada, in 2001 and after a successful run, moved to Broadway in 2006 with the National Tour appearing in San Francisco in 2008. Songs in the score include “Fancy Dress”, “As We Stumble Along”, “Message From a Nightingale”, “Love is Always Love” and “I Do I Do In the Sky”. Join us for a trip back to the 1920’s.

“Bells are Ringing” June/July 2012

Music by Jule Styne, Lyrics & Book by Betty Comden and Adolph Green

Returning to this theatre after a long absence, this award-winning musical comedy is our final show of the Season. “Bells Are Ringing” takes you back to a time before answering machines and high technology, when a real person answered your ringing telephone for you if you couldn’t do it yourself. Welcome to ‘Susanswerphone’ where the lines are blurred between doing a job and eavesdropping. This musical opened on Broadway in 1956, got solid reviews, received 4 Tony nominations and 2 awards starring Judy Holliday and Sydney Chaplin, and was revived on Broadway in 2001 with Faith Prince as Ella Peterson, the switchboard operator. The story and musical numbers are delightful and uplifting and include “Just In Time”, “Better Than a Dream”, “Drop That Name” and “A Simple Little System” which keep the cast and audiences smiling.
